

Exit Questionnaire Results July 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

We would just like to thank everyone who completed our exit questionnaire which was issued with your child's end of year report. Thank you for taking the time to do this. We are really thankful for your support and positivity, and it means so much to all of us. Over the summer holidays we have looked at the results and your comments. We will be making calls to families who have concerns as it is very important to us to ensure we work together to overcome any issues or concerns.

Any areas for development that came up frequently have been added to our school development plan to ensure we work together to become even better. There is also a document on our school website with all of the positive comments too.

Thank you to all of you for shaping the future of Morley Victoria. By working together we will have even better outcomes for our young people ensuring that they are ready for the next stage of education and beyond.

Kind Regards,

Mrs Wood and Mr Precious
